

Photojournal Rubric

Criteria	Great - 4	Good - 3	Poor – 2	Bad – 1
Photo Quantity  /8	10 Photos illustrating 10 different chemistry concepts	10 photos illustrating 8 or 9 different chemistry concepts	Less than 10 photos, or photos illustrate non-chemistry concepts or photos only illustrate 6 or 7 different chemistry concepts	5 or less chemistry concepts covered
Photo Quality  /28	All 10 photos are good examples of the illustrated concept. Student is in at least 2 photos.	8 or 9 photos are good examples of the illustrated concept. Student is in at least 2 photos.	6 or 7 photos are good examples of the illustrated concept. Student is only in one of the photos.	5 or less photos are good examples. Student is not in any of the photos.
Photo Relevance  /24	All 10 photos illustrate concepts covered in the chemistry 2202 curriculum	8-9 photos illustrate concepts covered in the chemistry 2202 curriculum	6-7 photos illustrate concepts covered in the chemistry 2202 curriculum	5 or less photos illustrate concepts covered in the chemistry 2202 curriculum
Explanations  /28	All 10 explanations use appropriate chemistry terms and do a good job linking the photo to the curriculum	Most explanations use appropriate chemistry terms and do a good job linking the photo to the curriculum while the rest are too short or have mistakes.	Some explanations use appropriate chemistry terms and do a good job linking the photo to the curriculum while the rest are too short or have mistakes.	Few explanations use appropriate chemistry terms and do a good job linking the photo to the curriculum while the rest are too short or have mistakes, or there are explanations missing
Formatting  /12	Slideshow has a title slide and a reference slide. Photo has a title. The slideshow was also well laid out and appealing to the eye.	One of the title slide or reference slide is missing or the photo slides are missing titles or the slideshow is not well laid out	Both the title slide and reference slide is missing, or one is missing and there is a problem with the photo slide formatting	There are no title or reference slide and the photo slides are just thrown together without any plan for the layout.